A LITTLE ABOUT ME

MULTILINGUAL

I speak three languages,
English, ASL and Spanish.

TATTOOS

I have two tattoos and am contemplating another one

9 SCHOOLS

As a military child, I was always moving which caused me to attend a new school almost every two years.

CRUTCH

I can't spell and flip words often. Gets embarrassing so I just have to roll with it.

If you had a parrot in your home,
what word would it repeat.

What special talent do you WISH you had?

MY FAVORITES

Who?

- Everyone gets a card
- They fill out 3 things on their in this order:
 - One thing you have in common with most in the room
 - One thing you have in common with some in the room
 - One thing you have in common with probably no one in the room
- Collect all the cards
- Pick one on random
- Everyone stands up
- As you read, students sit down when what is read doesn't apply to them. Whomever is left shares something about the last bullet on the cards.
- Don't go through all the cards at once. Use them throughout the first week.

GOT YOU

- Students stand in a circle and one student is in the middle.
- The student in the middle will call a name out of someone in the circle.
- The two students on either side of the named person must quickly point to each other and say "Got you!". The slowest person is out.
- You can decide if the slowest person is out or if they need to do something such as, act out a vocab word, answer a question in Spanish and so on.
- For larger groups, you can split up into two groups to keep the game going faster.
- Could do with vocab but a bit more complicated

MY FAVORITES

How About You?

- Line the students up
- Start at the end of the line and have the student say their name and something they like, but in this format:

Student: `My name is Alissa

Class: Hi Alissa

Student: I like to read, how about you? Yes or No?

- Then the students move to the correct spot (either side of the line) to represent their response.

ACHI PACHI

- Students stand in a circle and one student is in the middle
- The student in the middle closes their eyes
- The teacher then picks a few kids to be “Achi Pachi”
- The student in the middle then opens their eyes and begins to ask students questions. Students answer and if one of the Achi Pachi’s is picked, then all the students have to quickly cross the middle and find a new spot. Last one in the middle is now in the middle.
- Variations:
 - Student makes up their own question
 - Student ask the same question to hear different variations of the answer
 - “What would you do?” scenario.

SILENT LINE

- Students are given a criteria, and must silently put themselves in a line as quickly as possible, to meet a goal, compete against other classes, or receive some reward (free reading time, no homework, etc.)
- The criteria can simple (birthdays), or slightly more complicated (alphabetical order of college or career ambition, fav food).
- Have the students introduce the person next to them and say what they think their answer is (i.e. their b-day, fav food or college)

MY FAVORITES

Snap It

- Students stand in a circle
- One student is in the middle
- They have a wrapped up beach towel or swim noodle
- They run to hit someone (softly) on the leg (knee or below ONLY). The person they are about to hit have to say the name of someone else BEFORE they get hit or they are out.
- If a name is said, the person in the middle has to run to that student and try to hit them before they say a name.
- If a student is stuck on the middle for a bit, have a key word to call out to make kids have to find new spots in the middle and last person is now in the middle

What's your favorite community building
activity?

ROUTINES & STRUCTURES

REFLECT & REVISE

Only educators who are reflective are effective.

REFLECTION HAPPENS DAILY

No lesson is perfect – but everything can be improved on.

EXPLORE YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

Get to know where your students live.

GROCERY STORES

How close? Types of food?

PARKS

Conditions? Activity?

REC CENTERS

Assessible?

SCHOOL PATH

Safe? Well lit?

BE AUTHENTIC

Kids don't need cool teachers, they need real ones.

SELF-CARE

The more we invest in ourselves, the better we will be for our students, families and friends. Find that thing that rejuvenates you and do it regularly!

Look up funny memes. 	Compliment someone and watch their face light up. 	Take a shower. Better yet, soak in the tub with a magazine. 	Read a book. Bonus points if it has pictures.
Make something without caring whether it's "good." 	Have a good cry, but keep it short. Use the expensive tissues. 	Buy yourself a smallish gift, just because. 	Forgive yourself for what you couldn't do today, and resolve to try again tomorrow.
